When you love you often lose, especially when you haven't come to terms that the heart wants what the heart wants. In this sequel of Fire & Desire, Desire discovers that her love for Fire is something serious, more serious than herself. It seems as if outside forces always try to prevent fate from happening but once it's set and stone there is no coming back. Desire battle's with forgiving and forgetting, as she discovers more about her family and their past. Jewelz tries to mark his territory; Desire, but Fire wouldn't allow him to do so because he and Desire are one. Fire and Desire finally accepts fate's path but the question is will everyone else? Through this anticipated sequel you will be taken on an emotional roller coaster, that will simply have you shook and wanting more; Fire & Desire 2.
