Being a collector, it was no problem for me to accumulate the many jokes I received via e-mail after passing them in to most of the people in my address book. Then after much prodding by close friends to put the jokes in book form, I succumbed, and the rest is history. Whoa! This actually took some doing. First, I categorized the hundreds of jokes into seven main headings, then I culled what I considered unworthy entries, to present what I think is the finest collection of jokes ever assembled. If laughter is truly a great healer, then you can expect to laugh yourself into a longer life by reading this book - ENJOY!
