Don't Wake a Sleeping Spy! Charles R Sterbakov

A deadly explosion at Independence Hall, the prime suspect in a coma, and an overly ambitious government official are the main ingredients of this fast-paced, action-packed spy thriller. The suspect, known only as Felipe, regains consciousness after three months, too weak to stand without help, and with no memory of his past. He manages to escape the prison wing of the hospital and his memory and strength slowly return. His best friend finds him and informs him that he is a former Navy Seal and CIA agent and together they look for the truth of the bombing. In doing so, they uncover a massive conspiracy that threatens to overthrow the government of the United States.
