"Morning Star Over America - Volume II" is the second half of a nearly 1600-page personal Diary of two men from the heartland of America who have been the recipients of the almost daily miraculous intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary since February 22, 1991. It is an immense work of devotion that chronicles the first six years of their supernatural experiences and includes not only the transcription of the prophetic messages that they were instructed to proclaim to the world through dictation and parable alike, but also a descriptive historical mosaic of their lives as they grappled with the majestic unfolding of such an astounding gift amidst substantial personal opposition from some of those closest to them. Seldom in the course of literary history has there arisen a convincing masterpiece that provides such stunning evidence to the intercessory power of the Holy Spirit, God's undeniable presence within human interaction, and the approaching destiny of Jesus' Return in Glory which they claim is in the very near offing. If there can be a work which can reorient the conscience of humankind, the courageous message written within pages of their witness could possibly provide that spiritual transfiguration.
