Scoop / Put Out More Flags Evelyn WAUGH

This book has two novels of war "Scoop" a satire of sensationalist journalism and foreign correspondence. "Put out more flags"-The dormant conflict of the phoney war is reflected in the activity of the novel's main characters. Earnest would-be soldier Alistair Trumpington finds himself engaged in incomprehensible manoeuvres instead of real combat, while Waugh's recurring ne'er-do-well Basil Seal finds ample opportunity for amusing himself in the name of the war effort.
