You are your child's first and most important teacher. In this role, you have the opportunity to help your child gain a solid foundation of skills and begin preschool or kindergarten prepared to succeed. This workbook contains over 450 worksheets and 450 activity suggestions that are designed to:

- Introduce important school readiness topics in a fun, engaging and non-intimidating way.
- Help your child develop important skills such as the correct pencil grip, letter and number awareness, strong listening skills and more.
- Familiarize your child with challenging activities he will encounter in a preschool or kindergarten classroom so they are not unfamiliar or intimidating when school begins.
- Help your child gain confidence in his academic abilities and begin to view himself as a smart, capable student. By working with your child for less than one hour each day, you can ensure that he feels confident, prepared and secure from the moment he begins his first day of school. The confidence gained from this familiarity will allow him to embrace challenges and launch a self-fulfilling cycle of academic success.
