The store sparks her creativity, even if a vintage cradle uncomfortably awakens her buried longing for a family of her own. Her warmth and empathy make her a natural at sales, and despite himself, John starts to like her. But John was deeply wounded by the only woman he ever thought he'd love, so he keeps himself buttoned up and guarded. He may have to admit that Dani is the best thing that's ever happened to the store...but is she also the best thing that's ever happened to him?
