The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary, As Set Forth in Her Litany (Classic Reprint) Very Rev. O. Connell

Every child fondly loves its mother. Not in words only, but by deeds even more, it shows her the most beautiful devotion. It finds daily, ingeniously enough, new methods to rejoice her soul, and have her to feel its deep veneration for her. Children never tire of repeating the praises of their mother. They cherish the tenderest affection for her, whose loveliness is ever present before their eyes. In the home, they gather around her; when absent they think of her and long to return to her joyful smile and loving embrace. In this appreciation of her, she is the best, the fairest, the greatest, yes, the noblest, the most beautiful of all women. There is no rival to her. She surpasses all others. They laud her on every possible occasion, and resent the slightest reflection upon the beauty of her heart or soul. Their life is wholly wrapped up in hers. Our love and devotion for our sweet loving Mother Mary caused us to write this book in her honor. As one of her children, we wish to lay at the feet of the most admirable of mothers our meed of homage.
