Usually Tajikistan is famous among tourists due to its mountains. Indeed, there is hardly anyone who has never heard about Pamir - this legendary "top of the world". Tajikistan and the mountains are inseparable notions, however, it has to be pointed out that it is also a country with centuries-old history, rather varied ethnical picture and very rich nature: in short, the country, which has got unlimited traveling potential. Walk across shady streets of Dushanbe, reach the famous Iskanderkul Lake, wander inside the walls of Yamchun fortress, make a bicycle roundtrip across Pamir, stay in a local house in Pamir, have some tea with mountain dwellers, cast a glance at Pamir from another bank of Pyandj from Afghanistan... Look at Tajikistan with the eyes of our authors and photographers as in this way you can get the opportunity to feel the country's flavor and to be caught by its charm forever. We invite you to rank with such great travelers as Marco Polo, Frank Younghusband and John Wood and feel yourself being a pioneer. Amazingly, but Tajikistan is one of those rare places on the Earth where such a feeling can still appear.
