The Well Aron Wiesenfeld

- Aron Wiesenfeld makes paintings and charcoal drawings in which he evokes a reality that is at once familiar and mysterious. These poetic and carefully composed fragments are windows into an autonomous world that continues off the edges of the canvas. They trigger stories in the imagination that can take the shape of fairy tales, or more complex forms, questioning modern-day alienation. References to art history, mythology, and pop culture converge without hierarchical order amid the cluttered remainders of manufactured landscapes, or baroque scenes of nature in glorious overgrowth. The people that populate his work embark on secret errands into veils of falling snow and twilight. His works have a restrained and focused tone, inviting contemplation of this intimate space, silent but for murmurs of the ominous.

Playing with family within a park, coming to see the coastal world or hanging out with good friends is thing that usually you may have done when you have spare time, and then why you don't try matter that really opposite from that. One particular activity that make you not experience tired but still relaxing, trilling like on roller coaster you have been ride on and with addition of knowledge. Even you love The Well, it is possible to enjoy both. It is fine combination right, you still desire to miss it? What kind of hangout type is it? Oh occur its mind hangout guys. What? Still don't buy it, oh come on its named reading friends.

Beth Sanders:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Well can make you really feel more interested to read.
