To Love and Comfort (Western Vows) (Volume 4) Kari Trumbo

Denied a true father her whole life, Margot Fleur is devastated by a secret kept by the man she's known as her father, tearing her heart to pieces. Struggling with feelings of isolation she desperately wants to be part of something more; to be whole. When a mysterious cousin shows up and whisks her away, will she be happy to finally be part of a family, or wish for what she had before? Tyler Wilson longs to sweep Margot off of her feet. Seeing past her imperfections, he loves her for the sparkling spirit and bright dreams she once held so dear and only wants to see her smile again. Strong and determined, he sets out to win her heart but will a stubborn unwillingness to heed advice or hear the call of the Lord forever keep them apart? And if he doesn't learn, will Margot be lost forever?
