The want of a small book on the Law of Mortgage has been felt for some time. The following pages, in their original shape, consisted of notes prepared for the use of pupils that I am in the habit of preparing for the examinations of the Council of Legal Education and the Licorporated Law Society, and therefore peculiarities of style and arrangement are referable to this fact. I know from experience that the notes will be useful in examination. It is also hoped that the volume may be of assistance to the practitioner. The book presupposes an elementary knowledge of the subject, and is intended to serve as Since the above was written the papers of the recent Bar Examination have been published. Every question in the paper on Mortgages can be answered from this Book.
