Punishment is Due Tonia

On the surface, Diana has the world at her beck and call. But a high-paying executive position at her father's prestigious PR firm and enough money to make all of her problems seem virtually non-existent won't be enough to derail the tragedies that await her. Success has not come easy for Jay, yet even in the face of poverty and adversity, he has managed to become one of Houston's top attorneys. And then tragedy strikes. Tragedy that threatens to pull Jay back into the same streets that he's fought so hard to escape. In the midst of it all, Diana and Jay are forced to face their hearts' deepest desires while learning to live with the punishment that is due.
