Rough Sea Justice (Volume 1) James Cassaday

All of us have experienced feelings of frustration, even anger, when Law Courts find the victims of robbery or assault to be guilty of using excessive force in defending themselves or their property. Now read one fictional, but possible case featured in Rough Sea Justice and smile (at times) as the author introduces a dash or two of humour to smooth over the trials and tribulations of one victim who gets the balance of resistance allowed by law, quite wrong. To make matters worse, he goes on the run, sailing his yacht, Zephyr, and tries to hide from his pursuers in the waters surrounding the beautiful Hebridean Islands – but literally he ends up in deep water. The tone of the book is upbeat throughout, and it might serve as a warning to ‘have a go heroes’. In any event the readers, including landlubbers, will surely enjoy the cruise.
