In a town known for having an unrestrained population of children, dwelled the two worst juveniles. Christi Leann James and Alex Brian Romera had masterminded the art of mischief by age six. From bringing total anguish to those who were mentally and physically challenged, wore unsightly thick glasses to spitball wars, trashcan burnings, public restroom flooding and five-finger discounting anything their five fingers could grasp. Soon that would all change. Christi grew up and so did Alex, venturing into the disappointing incidents that defined human existence. By the time they graduate from high school, several deaths, drugs and so many life-defining incidents had already taken place. One is trapped in a world of drug abuse as well as physical abuse while the other suffers from so much pain of a wrecked heart that will end up un-mended after Roses in the rain are finally found.
