The Myta Bird Mystery Ann Lloyd

Toby Mackie wanted to go to Nantucket. She was going to Wisconsin. It's not fair thought Toby, even Martha Simms, the strangest girl in the class, is going to Nantucket. But Toby knew better than to argue with her father when it came to family traditions. And in Toby's family, the tradition of spending the summer following your 12th birthday on the Cobi reservation was practically written in stone. The Myta Bird Mystery is the story of a young girl's journey as she struggles to understand and accept her Indian heritage. As Toby and her clever grandmother set out to repair an old headdress left for her by her grandfather, they quickly become known as the fearless feather finders, and create a summer Toby will never forget. The Myta Bird Mystery is a heartwarming story of youth, heritage, loss, and the multigenerational appreciation of culture.
