Marcus Steel is unlike any other teenager in his small Kansas town. With his supernatural ability to fly, awesome strength, and X-ray vision, he was born to be a hero. But when his church calls him to serve a mission in South America, Marcus puts aside his dreams of heroism to embark on the journey. Once in country, however, Marcus discovers the work is far more difficult than he imagined. He may have been a hero back home, but in the mission he's powerless. Humbled by this new found weakness, Marcus must learn what it takes to be a true hero and rise up as a stalwart messenger of God.
