Rome Walks John Fort, Rachel Piercey

This updated 2nd edition of this delightful walking guide whose unique selling point is walking routes on 'bird's eye view' (isometric) mapping. Not just this, but the walks are informative and fun. Exploring Rome with this guide is like being taken by a friend who knows all the best restaurants, shops and attractions. It will introduce not only the famous sights but the atmosphere of the city as a whole. The new and contemporary cover emphasises these benefits, making it clear that the beautiful mapping is uniquely easy to use because it shows the street plan as well as the look of your surroundings. The routes are in all the most interesting areas of central Rome, plus a few on the outskirts. Most are about an hour long or can be joined together easily for long expeditions.
