The Aircraft Carrier Kaga (Super Drawings in 3D) Stefan Draminski

Japanese aircraft carrier “Kaga”. She was initially being built as a battleship, but as a result of a coincidence she became one of the first large carriers in history. She was a part of Japanese Kid? Butai, a group of carriers that decided about the power of the Imperial Japanese Navy during the first half-year of the war in Pacific. After a daring attack on Pearl Harbor followed by a series of further victories there was a reversal during the battle of Midway, when “Kaga” and three accompanying carriers were destroyed which ultimately buried Japan’s chances for winning the war.

REVIEWS

illustrations in the bulk of the book are really excellent, and to anyone modeling the Kaga then I would heartily recommend this one as a great reference to follow for when painting and finishing a model.
