"Woman is the highest term for man." Mary Baker Eddy, (1884) In metaphor the term "woman" represents the spiritual identity of our humanity, the highest identity of the human being. This spiritual sense of the term takes us beyond the sexual identity, to the realm of the divine, the divine idea reflected in our being. It takes us into the 4th dimension, of Spirit. Here is where our humanity is anchored. We have developed ourselves into a species of life that has no equal in the world, with capabilities of reason, discovery, and understanding that far surpass all other species. We have begun to discover truth, and to develop ourselves with it towards a future that is truly anchored in infinity. That 's what the book is designed to explore: the image of mankind that is described in ancient Scriptures as "a woman clothed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars," the stars in the crown of our rejoicing. (Revelation 12:1) This book presented here is Volume 6A, of the research series, Discovering Infinity. The book was developed in the 1980s, first published in 2003, and has been upgraded thereafter. The reprint presented here is of the latest edition.
