Good Morning, Sun Rebecca Hamilton

For fans of Goodnight Moon by Margaret Wise Brown, this tribute to her work is sure to delight both you and your child, with illustrations designed to heighten your child's cognitive development through word and picture associations. * * * In a great big world, with endless corners to explore, is a day awaiting exploration and fun. "Good morning skies, and butterflies." And to all the things and people in this world that are worth exploring -- to flowers and frogs, to kittens and dogs, to playgrounds with slides and mothers breastfeeding with pride -- your little one can say, "Good morning!" There's no better book to start your little one's day!
