In the year 1950, a bold invitation was published: "The Watchtower invites careful and critical examination of its contents in the light of the Scriptures." It is this call that forms the premise for the book, launching an investigation reminiscent of Indiana Jones' search for priceless artifacts; however, in this case, the author set on a quest for hidden or obscured Watchtower truths, which may have been camouflaged over time. The discoveries were nothing short of profound, and the reader should expect the unexpected!

This book presents a unique, objective comparison of Watchtower doctrine and biblical scripture, while highlighting the importance of discipleship (sharing one's faith with others). The author also introduces a revealing look at foundational teachings by the Watchtower that are not widely known to Jehovah's Witnesses today. As such, the material will appeal to Christians and non-Christians alike.
