You Can't Make Me Love You Ayana

Giselle Douglas, is a bright, young woman studying at NYU. She's in her last year of college, graduating with a Bachelors in Journalism. All the while she's looking forward to traveling to the world's most controversial place to write her thesis. However, what she doesn't know is that she will be the controversial topic of discussion. On the day that she is supposed to leave, she discovers that the Head Master has taken a special liking to her. A liking so unusually rare, that he traps her in a place where she can never get out. Michelangelo Riccardo Basillo, also known as Head Master, is a powerful man. Growing up in a strict, power craving family, Michel wants nothing more than to have it all. He craves it day in and day out, so he decides to take it. After years and years of slaughtering, fighting, and manipulating those around him, he finally gains the ultimate power he has wanted, while also becoming the world's most talked about man. However, he is missing one thing, his soul mate. Behind every great man is a great woman, or women in Michel's case. After marrying three beautiful women, and supposedly living larger than life itself, there is something still missing until Giselle walks in. She's a woman that he doesn't want to let go, so he doesn't. Follow Giselle as her life takes and unexpected turn for the worst. Experience all of her emotions as she faces trials and tribulations along her journey. Will she make it out alive or will she be trapped forever?
