Snippets of Serbia

An American artist chronicles her life in Serbia. This is Emma Fick's illustrated journey through the weird, the fun and the unique adventures to be experienced across this small Balkan country. Emma's book is a labour of love by an aspiring young artist that captures the sense of being in a moment. She beautifully conveys so much of Serbia's culture through a blend of playful illustrations and poignant written comments. Even locals gasp at how accurately she conveys the everyday aspects of Serbian life that are usually taken for granted or overlooked.
