Two friends that struggled to get out of the game think they made it till the game pulls them back in. . . Trey Young, black, and successful tired of going from one trick to another, playing at finding wifey. He survived on the streets by always trusting his instincts, but when he meets Tracy a gangster princess who's not afraid to put her game down and get grimmey when she has too, he sees that his instincts don't always tell him the real. Ty Trey's homeboy struggles with people always assuming that he lives in Trey's shadow, which normally he doesn't mind because it means that people don't know the real. When he meets up with Lea again, an old friend that turns out to be the wifey he wants, he thinks his life is set. Until he thinks that she's looking past him towards Trey too. When betrayal comes into play he's facing three choices, life in prison, life on the run, or a life without Lea! Two friends who thought they knew everything about the game and each other, find out they didn't know anything. They forgot to trust each other in a world where that's all they could do. And it leaves both of them fighting for their lives from the game and from each other.
