Dispatches from England: An American Family's Adventure Living in England for 3 Years Nicole Wiltrout

Nicole Wiltrout is a typical American mom of two from Indiana and one day, her family was given the incredible opportunity to move to England for three years when her husband got a job transfer. She then spent three years writing a weekly column for Anglotopia.net about life in England as an American expat. Now compiled into a book, Dispatches from England is an interesting perspective on life in the UK from an American family that grew to love the place. Join Nicole on her incredible journey as she navigates British cultural life with two precocious children.
