McNeil's Match (Arabesque) Gwynne Forster

After a bitter divorce, twenty-nine-year-old Lynne Thurston is faced with the prospect of not knowing what to do with the rest of her life. A highly ranked pro tennis player, she gave it all up six years ago when she got married. Now with nothing to lose, can she make a comeback on the tennis circuit? And more important, can she regain her self-confidence and her faith in love?

Sloan McNeil is a businessman whose gruff manner and appearance belie his sensitive and caring nature. When he meets Lynne, all of that changes as he tries to convince her that she still has what it takes to compete in professional tennis. But with her ex-husband doggedly pursuing reconciliation, will Sloan be able to convince Lynne to take another chance on love?
