For a retired hit chick in a sleepy Northwest town, a new neighbor with an unknown past means trouble. He may be a cop. He might be an enforcer. He claims to be a simple handyman... but for Sindie Slick, former Pole-Dancing Hit Chick, that's the least credible story of them all.

Tor Richardson, author of "Mission: Malibu" and "Starting Over," presents an amusing little adventure of a small-town busybody who's slightly more than she seems. With fun characters and a clever story, "Sindie Greets the Handyman" is a light-hearted tale that readers will enjoy to the very end.
